BEAT FORD AS A DUTY DECLARES SENATOR

"Patriotic Motives" Given As Back of Election Activities

COMPARISON OF WAR RECORDS FORBIDDEN

Prosecutor Declares "Huge Sums" Used to Elect Newberry

By J. L. O'SULLIVAN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 3.—"Patriotic duty" was Senator Truman H. Newberry's answer today to charges that he was elected to the senatorship in a "barrel campaign."

Newberry's opponent in 1918 was Henry Ford.

"Patriotic duty" drove the 134 men on trial here charged with frauds in connection with that election, to "do everything possible" to elect Newberry, James C. Murfin, attorney for the defense, said.

Judge Sessions warned Murfin to avoid a discussion of the merits of candidates when the attorney attempted to draw a comparison between the war records of Henry Ford and Newberry.

"This is no time for such an argument," Judge Sessions said.

"I want to show the purposes of these men's activities," declared Murfin.

"If they made illegal expenditures of money during the campaign it makes no difference," the court ruled.

Murfin's statement was in answer to claims made by Prosecutor Frank C. Dailey, who pictured a campaign where "enormous amounts" of money were used to purchase votes and buy political support.

"Analyzing what these defendants did, the atmosphere under which they did it must be considered," he said.

"When Henry Ford announced his candidacy on June 14, 1918, the fate of the civilized world was hanging in the balance. The last German drive was at its height; the advanced armies were within thirty miles of Paris and the channel ports were threatened."

Americanism and patriotic excitement were "at their very crest," Murfin declared.

Murfin declared Newberry had "an honorable record" in the Spanish-American war and had been secretary of the navy under "that militant American," Theodore Roosevelt. He told how Newberry volunteered his services "within 48 hours after our country was threatened" in 1917.

"We will prove conclusively that what these men did was not for pay but for patriotism," Murfin declared.

"They were not actuated by avarice, but by Americanism."

Murfin said Newberry was asked to become a candidate by a group of "representative citizens" who conferred in Detroit as early as August, 1917.

First Newberry refused, Murfin said, "but in December and January, the Newberry movement in Michigan continued to gather force and momentum until finally the commander seriously set about to inquire whether or not it was his duty to make the race."

Murfin said that when Newberry, "finally consented" to the use of his name, he stipulated he could not leave his duties as aide to the commander of the port of New York; that he could not be active and that he could not contribute one dollar to this movement.

"This determination was religiously adhered to by him from beginning to end," Murfin said, "and the proof will positively show you that not one dollar of his money was handled by anyone."

The attorney declared the Newberry organization which was built up was "undoubtedly the most perfect political organization ever put together."

"Every township, hamlet and city in the state was organized," he said. "The commander was running against the best advertised man in America. It was necessary that his qualifications be given the widest publicity."

"A great advertising campaign was organized in charge of the most skillful publicity men who could be found—who did their work thoroughly well and with absolute honesty."

Murfin then told the jury, in great

MOVING PICTURE DEFENSE EXHIBIT IN MURDER TRIAL

MARYSVILLE, Feb. 3.—The moving picture made its first appearance in a murder trial here this afternoon when the defense re-enacted its version of the killing of Charles Brown. Actors and actresses from San Francisco were seen depicting the alleged act of Frank McCormick, brother of Mrs. Gertrude Wilson, who is now on trial for the murder of Brown. McCormick is also charged with murdering Brown.

Wesley Potts, who claims to have been an eye-witness of the killing, acted as movie director. It was at his instructions that each character played his part.

"Brown" was seen to come out of his cabin and fire upon "McCormick," wounding him. "McCormick" then ran to get his rifle and with blood streaming from a wound in his face, fired at "Brown." The state asserts McCormick was not wounded.

Mrs. Wilson does not appear in the movie at the climax. The state, however, declares she ran up and fired three shots into Brown's body. The jury, during this exhibition, was barred from the court-room.

POUND STERLING AT NEW LOW MARK TODAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The British pound sterling opened off four cents at a new low record at $3.39 in the money market today, after demand sterling exchange had opened in London at the same price.

THREATEN ARREST OF STANFORD SPEEDERS

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Feb. 3.—Arrest of students who drive their automobiles carelessly or speed was threatened by A. E. Roth, university controller, in a statement last night. He gave authority to make arrests if necessary, was to be applied under the consolidation provisions of the Esch bill.

CUT OUT RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION PLAN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Compulsory consolidation of railroads as provided in the Cummins bill was eliminated from the railroad legislation today by House and Senate conferees. They also struck out the transportation board created by the Cummins bill and provided that the functions of the board shall be performed by the interstate commerce commission.

The conferees agreed to authorize the interstate commerce commission to work out a general consolidation plan to be applied under the consolidation provisions of the Esch bill.

SAN JOSE GIRL IS VICTIM OF ATTACK

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—The victim of a mysterious attack, and suffering from the effects of a blow on the head which physicians believe will prove fatal, Miss Peggy English, 18, musical comedy actress, was found lying unconscious on the beach at Venice early today. Taken to St. Catherine's hospital, Santa Monica, the girl was revived sufficiently to give her name, and told the hospital authorities her parents live in San Jose.

FLYERS BEING GIVEN BEST TREATMENT, REPORTED

Latest Airmen to Descend In Mexico Expect Release Within 48 Hours

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Feb. 3.—Lieutenants L. M. Wolf and C. L. Usher, the United States aviators who descended in Nacozari, Mexico, yesterday, after losing their way en route to Nogales from Fort Bliss, are being treated with utmost friendliness in the Mexican mining town, according to reports reaching here today.

The two American fliers are not under arrest and while awaiting the official word from Mexico City for their return to the American side are enjoying practically the freedom of Nacozari.

J. S. Williams, Jr., American manager of the Moctezuma Mining company in Nacozari, is looking after the welfare of the two United States aviators.

Adjutant Harrison of the district commander's office in Douglas expects that the American airmen would be released within 24 hours. They will come to Douglas via rail, their machine having been severely damaged in the forced landing on rough ground.

The fliers left Fort Bliss, near El Paso, Tex., shortly before noon yesterday. Mistaking the Nacozari railroad, which runs south from here for their route to Nogales, the aviators entered Mexican territory. Engine trouble developed, forcing them to land in Mexico. They walked in to Nacozari where the municipal president placed them in technical custody but did not confine them to the jail. They were permitted to wire Fort Bliss their whereabouts and report their accident. Their formal release only awaits official orders from the Mexican military authorities.

No Anxiety Felt EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 3.—The safety of Lieutenants L. M. Wolf and G. L. Usher, aviators, who lost their way and landed in Nacozari, Mexico, is causing no apprehension here, according to Major General Robert L. Howze, district commander, today. Negotiations are in progress for their early return to the American border at Douglas, Arizona.

SIMS' CHARGE IS INSULT TO NAVY, DECLARES DANIELS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Admiral Sims' charge that the morale of the navy is shattered by the alleged injustice of medal awards is "an insult to the splendid men of the navy," Secretary Daniels declared today, testifying before the Senate Naval committee in its investigation of medal awards.

"It is an insult to the splendid men of the navy to say that the morale of the navy could be seriously impaired by any awards to individuals," Daniels said. "They are made of sterner stuff than to be rattled by a matter so unimportant in comparison with their devotion to their duty," he said.

Enlisted men in service in the war zone were "largely overlooked" in recommendations for naval decorations made by the Knight Board of Awards, Daniels told the committee, explaining why he revised the list.

Only 22 per cent of officers on sea duty in the war zone were recommended, he said.

"I was astonished to find that only 119 enlisted men out of the 500,000 in the navy during the war were recommended for any high honors," Daniels said.

UPHOLD CONVICTION OF DR. NORTHCOTT

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—The district court of appeals here has upheld the conviction of Dr. Ephraim Northcott on a charge of murdering Miss Inez Reed, army nurse.

Judge Beck of Redwood City, had sentenced Northcott to an indeterminate sentence of from ten years to life.

The body of the nurse was found almost a year ago in a ravine in San Mateo county. An autopsy revealed her death was due to an illegal operation. Northcott was convicted on circumstantial evidence.

COST OF HAIRCUTS, SHAVES, INCREASED

MODESTO, Feb. 3.—Without any previous warning, barbers here have just increased the price of hair cuts to 65 cents and shaves to 35 cents.

One reason given by the barbers for the increased prices is that prohibition has sent the price of tonics so high that customers prefer to grow bald rather than pay for treatments, and the raises on haircuts and shaves are expected to take care of the loss occasioned by the falling off in the use of the tonsorial luxuries.

50 MAIL CARRIERS RESIGN EVERY DAY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Rural mail carriers are resigning at the rate of fifty a day, W. D. Brown, representing the National Rural Mail Carriers' Association, told the Senate postal committee, adding that the service faced serious difficulties unless financial relief was accorded employees soon. He asked a permanent increase of approximately 60 per cent over the present base pay of $1,200 per annum, with a minimum base of $1,920. The increased annual expense would be about $78,000,000, he said.

The carriers do not earn as much as farm laborers at the present time, Mr. Brown declared.

WOMAN APPOINTED COUNTY RECORDER

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 3.—Miss Brenda L. Moody has just been appointed by the supervisors as county recorder, to succeed Mark Bradley, dean of county recorders of the state who resigned to take charge of the land department of the Commercial Trust and Savings Bank.

Miss Moody has been chief deputy in the office for several years.

Road Bond Issue

A $400,000 road bond issue will be voted on by the Pomona district on March 9, according to the date just announced. Engineers have prepared plans for a system of paved roads connecting all Pomona Valley with the state highway. The roads will open to colonization, thousands of acres of rich farm lands, created.

HELD AT NACAZARI

NOGALES, Ariz., Feb. 3.—A telegram from Nacozari, Sonora, was received here today reporting that two American aviators landed near here yesterday and are now in custody of the municipal authorities. No details were given, but the report said the men are being well treated.

Is Centennial Celebration of Birth of Mrs. Susan B. Anthony

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Will the fifty-first annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, to be held in Chicago February 12 to 18, be the last convention of this body?

This question, say the suffrage leaders, will form a part of one of the most important discussions of the convention—the future of the national suffrage body, after the expected ratification of the federal suffrage amendment.

Besides being a victory celebration, the convention will be a centennial commemoration of the birth of Susan B. Anthony.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the association, will preside. A victory pageant, "Then and Now" in charge of Mrs. J. W. Morrison, will be a feature of the program which is being prepared under the direction of Mrs. J. W. McGraw.

This pageant is designed to show the difference between the first gatherings of the organization, in 1849, and the present one, which may be the last. The date set for it is Monday evening, February 16.

BULLETINS

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Eight cars oranges and no lemons sold today. Orange, 15 to 25 cents higher for 176 size and larger, steady on small grades. Averages, $3.98 to $6.53. Highest price, 14 boxes Heart, $6.90. Weather, cloudy; 8 a. m., temperature, 34.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Trading in the principal foreign exchanges was demoralized this afternoon when all the Allied moneys broke badly to new low records. Sterling slumped to $3.33 1/2, after opening at $3.39, a drop of 4 cents from yesterday's close.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—President Wilson narrowly escaped an attack of influenza, it was learned at the White House today. The president, Dr. Grayson declared, contracted a slight cold during the inclement weather of last week and for a time abandoned his daily practice of sitting on the porch at the White House for an hour each morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—Nine businessmen are under arrest and 4000 gallons of liquor are in the hands of federal officers as the result of the biggest prohibition raid yet staged in California. The raid took place at Crockett last night. It followed a week's investigation by four internal revenue agents disguised as surveyors.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Senator Gronna of North Dakota today introduced a bill to abolish the grain corporation and government buying and selling of wheat and terminate the wheat price guarantee. Gronna declared that government interference with wheat has cost the farmers two billion dollars. He will urge the agriculture committee to take up his bill at once.

SIX MEN KILLED BY ASPHYXIATION

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 3.—Huddled together in two beds and acot in one small room of a little hotel opposite the Market street station, the bodies of six men, asphyxiated, were discovered early today.

Three of the bodies were in one bed, in attitudes of repose, the men having died without waking. Two others lay in a second bed and a sixth man was on a cot.

50,000 ARTICLES IN ALL-AMERICAN NOVELTIES SHOW

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Four years ago Germany was making and exhibiting 30 per cent of America's novelty goods.

Today the Manufacturers' and Importers' association of America opened an exhibition of 50,000 different articles of merchandise—ranging in description from needles to anchors, in price from five cents to $50—and every item American made.

"We won't consider German made goods for many years," declared William Bromberg, secretary-treasurer of the association.

Fifteen hundred merchants from coast to coast have been attracted to the exhibit, which is staged by one hundred national novelty manufacturers.

BUSINESSMEN WANT TRADE WITH RUSSIA

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The American Commercial Association to Promote Trade with Russia has been organized by more than a hundred representatives of American business firms. At a meeting here the executive committee was directed to start mandamus proceedings in the federal court, if Secretary of State Lansing continued to refuse permission for resumption of commerce with Russia.

A resolution unanimously adopted declared Russia offered a unique opportunity for American commercial enterprise and technical skill.

QUESTION OF CONTRACT ENTERS INTO ACTION

The question as to whether or not R. W. Rogers, expert in the erection of newspaper presses, contracted with R. W. Ernest, manager of the Anaheim Plain Dealer, to put up a press bought by Ernest for $350 is to be decided by Justice Cox. Rogers in his complaint asked judgment for $129.25, which amount he said was still due him on a bill of $338.

Ernest in his answer replied that Rogers had said he would erect the press for not over $300 or $350.

Rogers takes the ground that he did not contract to do the work for any set sum, and in naming $350 he merely made an estimate. Cox has the case under advisement.

HAS LOTS OF BOOZE; HUNDREDS ENVY HIM

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—There is one person in Chicago who has so much liquor that it is a problem. He is Major A. V. Dalrymple, federal prohibition officer here, who announced yesterday he had asked the government for permission to rent a store room for the storage of "evidence" seized from the raids here.

GOVERNMENT ANSWER GIVEN RAIL WORKERS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Rail Director Hines today laid before representatives of the railway employees' unions the government's final answer to their demands for higher wages.

The text of Hines' answer was not disclosed, but it was understood he suggested three alternatives as a basis of settlement. One of these, it was reported, was a plan for establishment of a commission, similar to the coal commission, to consider the demands.

The session adjourned for lunch at noon and the conferees said no agreement had been reached at that time.

FIRST MAN TO GO ON TRIAL IS WOOTEN

Start Selection Today of Jury to Try Bisbee Hardware Dealer

JURY EXAMINATION SPIRITED AT TIMES

"Deporters Looked Like an Army," One Prospective Juror Said

By M. D. TRACY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., Feb. 3.—H. E. Wooten, Bisbee hardware dealer, went on trial today as the first defendant in the Bisbee deportation and kidnapping case.

Wooten's case was called at 10 o'clock after the court had agreed to the entrance of a blanket objection by the prosecution to every question asked in a series of depositions which the defense had prepared.

"I would like to announce what I will do next," was the significant remark of Prosecutor French, but the court cut him off and ordered that selection of the jury proceed.

One temporary juror was secured at the morning session. He was E. E. Lee, a contractor of Paradise.

Six men were questioned, two of these stated immediately they had unfavorable opinions and others were challenged for cause. H. M. Toms of Lowell was challenged on the ground that he is an employee of the Calumet Arizona Mining Company.

Examination of the veniremen was spirited at times.

"If you were a juror and returned a verdict of guilty, wouldn't you expect to lose your job?" Prosecutor French asked one man who is employed by a mining company.

"I don't know," was the answer. J. W. Campbell, under examination said he had watched the deportation. "Were the deporters armed?" he was asked.

"Yes."

"How many armed men did you see?" was the next question.

"It looked like an army to me, Campbell answered."

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., Feb. 3.—Unless prosecution witnesses had arrived over night, County Attorney R. N. French was to move today to dismiss the case of Phil Tovrea, Fred Sandtner and J. A. Boyd, alleged kidnapers which the court ruled must go to trial first of the Bisbee deportation cases.

There was every indication that W. E. Wooten, wealthy Bisbee hardware dealer, would be the first man tried. Attorneys had agreed that if the prosecution was not ready to try Tovrea, Sandtner and Boyd, both sides would be prepared to try Wooten.

The prosecution still desired to try the large group of defendants—approximately 150—named in the joint indictment, but it seemed certain that if this should be called separate trials would be asked.

The court ruled late yesterday that Sandtner, Boyd and Tovrea should be tried first.

If the Wooten case is called, Fred Brown, now chief investigator for the county attorney, will be the prosecuting witness. Wooten is accused of having selected Brown for deportation, and having personally directed his deportation into New Mexico. Brown denies he ever was an I. W. W. and will produce witnesses he says, to show that he was in Bisbee with a commission from Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor as an organizer for the American Federation of Labor.

The defense will attempt to show that Brown was an agitator.

"The Wooten case will bring out the whole story, or practically so," said Assistant County Attorney George M. Roark.

The defense agreed this case would bring out most of its evidence.

County Attorney French, or "Bob" French as he is commonly known, presents a remarkable contrast to the defense attorneys. French wears a long black frock coat, while the attorneys wear suits of the latest fashion. W. E. Curley, El Paso, for the defense, are snappily dressed.

The Curleys are adroit, but "Bob" draws out his arguments in a broad southern accent. The defense counsel have a staff of clerks and assistants at work.

JOHNSON GOING
STRONG SAYS
CARNAHAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—The Republican Presidential campaign situation was surveyed to date in a comprehensive review by Hiram Johnson's Western campaign manager, H. L. Carnahan, yesterday, after a long distance conference with his Eastern associate, Angus McSwen, in New York.

"Hiram Johnson's strength is surprising to even the Lowden and Wood managers, as they have frankly admitted," Carnahan said, "and especially is this true in the Middle Western states, the scene of his present speaking tour.

"South Dakota and North Dakota will have their state delegations instructed solidly for him. That is my prediction, and if the enthusiasm shown by Missouri and Nebraska may be taken as an indication of sentiment, they will also be in line.

"There is a neck-and-neck race at present in Minnesota, but Johnson's strength with the solid business element of St. Paul and Minneapolis gives him a considerable advantage over Wood and Lowden.

"Lowden leads slightly over Johnson in Iowa, according to a recent newspaper poll, but as this embraced but a small portion of the state and included the city where Illinois' Governor was educated, it is not a fair indication.

"In the eastern states, Massachusetts, New York, Vermont, Pennsylvania and Delaware, the Johnson organizations report giant strides. His Brooklyn speech gave them a close-up idea of his personality and position as a presidential candidate, and everything indicates he is fast becoming the favorite."

PRESIDENT ABLE TO DIRECT HIS CABINET

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—President Wilson has made so much progress in recovering from his nervous breakdown that he is in fit condition to attend and preside over a meeting of the cabinet, should anything of immediate importance demand his attention, Secretary Tumulty said today. Tumulty denied a published report that Wilson would preside over a cabinet meeting today.

MISE SELLS GROCERY STOCK, WILL RANCH

From exchanging groceries for coin of the realm to exchanging golden oranges for silver and gold dollars is the step W. H. Mize expects to take soon. Mize has disposed of his grocery business on West Fourth street to Fred Seifert, who has moved the stock to his new business on West Third street.

Mize has been conducting the sanitary grocery for the past three or four years and has developed a pining for ranch life, and he has sold out his business with a view to acquiring ranch property. It is understood that he contemplates the purchase of an orange grove in the near future, first devoting himself to the joy of a brief vacation, something he has not had for a number of years.

TAKES HEARERS ON TRIP INTO SIERRAS

The Congregational church was well filled with the audience who gathered last night to listen to the lecture of Prof. Francis Fultz on "Camping and Tramping in the High Sierras." The lecture was accompanied by a fine series of lantern slides illustrative of his talk.

Prof. Fultz explained that he took the views himself from which the slides were prepared and many of them had been used as illustrations in books and that the beautiful and accurate coloring for which they were notable was due to the work of Mrs. Fultz.

Prof. Fultz said he became familiar with the Sierras of this state long before he became a resident and that the larger part of his knowledge of the high mountains of the northern part of the state was gained while in company with the Sierra Club in its annual outings. He remarked in passing that personally he thought a great deal of the state's southern mountains and while they might not exhibit the grandeur of the high Sierras they exhibited beauties that would well repay intensive observation.

The lecturer described an expedition of the Sierra Club to Mount Whitney via the Tule and Kern rivers showing first how the dunnage bags of the club, each weighing thirty pounds, were loaded and transported by the pack animals, how the trapper were dressed and equipped, how they formed in line and cafeteria style secured their meals, gossiping and scattering about while eating it, and how they appeared while hitting up the smart pace set by the secretary of the club, Mr. Colby.

Scenes of deep blue lakes, regular mountains, set like sapphires amid rough ridges and green forest, followed until his hearers were transported to the top of Whitney, there among huge scattered boulders to look off over the Owens Lake region from which comes the water supply of Los Angeles. He said that Whitney was not a particularly difficult mountain to climb as there was only a portion of the ascent that was steep but that it was on account of the length of the climb and the extreme altitude with corresponding rarity of atmosphere that its climb was an excellent test of endurance.

Besides these scenes Prof. Fultz exhibited scenes taken from the region back of the Yosemite Valley where the snow was unusually plentiful the summer he went. It was hard for the audience to realize that swift mountain streams crossed on ice bridges and snow fields and incipient glaciers were all incidents of a midsummer trip.

Some attention was given to the doings of the more strenuous hikers, those "knapsackers" who appeared climbing the bleak and lofty sides of stern Mt. Ritter, or pushing their way through the shoulder high brush of the Tuolumne gorge. An especially notable slide was that showing the curious phenomenon, the "red snow."

Prof. Fultz exhibited pictures of many fine forest trees, including the stunted foxtail pines that haunt the high lava rocks, the magnificent sugar and yellow pines, firs, and greatest of all the giant sequoias; it was indeed difficult to secure a picture of the big trees which would convey an adequate idea of their hugeness and it was only by taking them in a series of slides that he was able to show them in former days back in Burlington, Iowa.

There were present Mr. and Mrs. E. Robt. Northcross, Prof. and Mrs. E. Robt. Nealley, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Leebarring accidents, almost indestructible. The survivors of many fires Perkins, together with Prof. Fultz would often have their tops shivered and the host, Mr. Rafferty.

Miss Knowles May Marry Guy Spiker Today, Indicated

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 3.—Guy Spiker is unshaken in his decision to marry Miss Emily Knowles, the English mother of his aviator brother's son, he declared this afternoon in the face of reports that obstacles had arisen which might prevent the ceremony.

It was stated at the home of Mrs. Wm. Battersby, cousin of Miss Knowles, that no plan for the marriage had been made. "I still intend to marry Miss Knowles in spite of reports to the contrary," Spiker said. "I will be doing my brother a service, but that is not the only reason."

He refused to state what the other reason might be.

detail, the connection which many of the defendants had with the Newberry campaign.

Exact Sum Not Known
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 3.—The exact sum used in the alleged "barrel campaign" of Senator Truman H. Newberry of Michigan remained unnamed today.

Prosecutor Frank C. Dalley, continuing his outline of the government's case against Newberry and 134 political aides, charged with vote frauds, contented himself with general terms.

Dalley's address, describing the alleged money method used by Newberry in defeating Henry Ford for the senatorship, alluded to "great sums," "unlimited amounts," "enormous wealth," "huge heaps and piles of money" and "slush funds."

"We will show," Dalley told the jurors, "that great heaps and piles of money were on Paul H. King's desk in Detroit and Charles A. Floyd's headquarters in Grand Rapids."

King was the Newberry campaign manager and Floyd was in charge of the Grand Rapids office.

Army of Agents Employed
"An army of field agents was employed. The majority received $300 a month each," Dalley stated. "Speakers were hired and secret propagandists were paid large salaries to advocate Newberry's election."

"The government will show," Dalley claimed, "that the plot was conceived by Newberry and his right-hand aide, Frederick Cody, a 'legislative agent.' Dalley, after outlining each of the main points in his review of the government's case, declared the evidence would show that Newberry had personal knowledge of these activities of his campaign managers and frequently 'advised, counseled and directed' them with regard to various steps."

Newberry, sitting in the rear of the courtroom, was noticeably affected by Dalley's statement. His face flushed and twitched nervously as the prosecutor denounced his activities.

Dalley talked for three hours yesterday and was expected to take most of this morning's session to complete his statement.

Judge James C. Murfin of Detroit will probably make the opening statement for the defense.

Asks $50,000 For Baby's Injury Before Her Birth

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 3.—Anna Marie Liblin, aged 4 months, wants to know whether an infant can cash an injury sustained before birth for $50,000.

She brought suit against the traction company here for that sum, her attorneys alleging a bump on her mother's head, sustained in a street car accident, was transmitted to her by parental influence.

Anna's attorneys allege she was a regular passenger, having paid her fare under the rule which permits children under five years to ride free when accompanied by a parent. They say an unborn child is a legalized entity.

The street car company in its answer, due in court today, will claim Anna did not exist until after her birth, therefore that she had no dealings with the company.

WILL PACK FRUIT AT ORANGE SHOW

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 3.—Packing of California oranges, a sight interesting to thousands of tourists and even Californians, will be one of the features of the National Orange Show, to be held at San Bernardino, Feb. 13 to 23.

Complete packing house plants showing the course of oranges from the graders to the boxes ready for shipment, is being installed by the Fontana Company. Girls clad in orange costumes will be in charge of the display and throughout the show oranges will be in the progress of preparation for market. At least one carload of fruit, designated as having come from the National Orange Show, will be packed and shipped to the markets of the east.

Construction of the Orange Show is nearing completion.

MISSING PLACENTIA GIRL FOUND IN L. A.

Miss Mattie Mozler, of Placentia, whose absence from home for two weeks, without word to any of her relatives, caused considerable alarm, today is at the home of her uncle in Los Angeles.

The young lady was taken sick on a train from Fresno and upon arrival in Los Angeles was taken to a hospital. It is said that she was too ill to even tell her identity.

It is understood that she was found in the hospital by members of the detective force, who were working on the case. The mother of the girl is now with her in Los Angeles.

For the Children
Too much care cannot be exercised in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful drug and most effectual in curing their cough and colds. Long experience has shown that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these conditions. It is a favorite with many mothers.—Adv.

3 TOWNS WANT GUARD UNITS, INDICATED

Orange, Anaheim and Fullerton each want a local company of the National Guard, and prospects are getting better every day for formation of an Orange County battalion of four companies, taking in the present Santa Ana unit, it was indicated by prominent citizens of each community yesterday during the visit of Adjutant General Borree and his assistant, Col. McKnight.

Borree and McKnight, accompanied by Lieut. Jesse L. Elliott and Sheriff C. E. Jackson, visited each of the three towns yesterday and held informal meetings with some of the leading businessmen and citizens at each place, explaining the present status of the Guard and pointing out how it would benefit the communities if a company should be formed there.

Many towns throughout the state are clamoring for the formation of Guard companies, the officers said, and there are only a limited number of units available to be formed, so that if the Orange county towns want Guard companies they will likely have to "go to bat" at once, for if they wait two or three months other towns will have taken up the organization of all units allowed under the present plan.

An Orange county battalion, they pointed out, would give this district a very efficient organization and one which would mean much to the county in the months to come.

After the talks, each town's representatives expressed themselves as strongly in favor of the organization and promised their best efforts to bring about formation of local companies.

Borree and McKnight left last evening for San Diego and from there will go into the Imperial valley, where at least two towns are anxious that Guard companies be placed at once.

Like Being Hit By Rattle Snake

Says that every time you cut or pick at a corn you invite lockjaw

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out with the fingers, without one particle of pain.

This freezone is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and just loosens the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. He says a quarter of an ounce will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but this is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are positively warned that cutting or picking at a corn is a suicidal habit.—Adv.

TAKE EVIDENCE BY THURSDAY, LIKELY

GRAYS HARBOR COURTHOUSE, MONTESANO, Wash., Feb. 3.—Ten of the 12 temporary jurors selected to try the charges of first degree murder against eleven alleged I. W. W. on trial here for the Centralia shooting have been passed without objection from either defense or prosecution. When the case was resumed today the defense had used four of its peremptory challenges, while the state had exercised only two of its quota of six.

That the introduction of evidence will be begun by Thursday was foreseen by observers who pointed out that of the present jurors only two were accepted over the challenge of Defense Attorney Vanderveer while all have been passed for cause by the prosecution.

Vanderveer who has previously maintained that a least two weeks would be required to select a jury, today admitted that witnesses might be called to the stand Thursday.

The motion of the defense to quash the entire venire met defeat late yesterday when the court refused to uphold Attorney Vanderveer.

The attempt to start with a clean slate in selecting a jury came late in the afternoon when it had become known that two members of the regular venire who had previously been excused on grounds of illness had reported for duty earlier in the day, but through oversight their names had not been placed on the jury list. Subsequently both were called and passed.

Frequent clashes between Vanderveer and Special Prosecutor W. H. Abel have furnished much amusement for the defendants and spectators.

Throughout the hearings the prisoners have paid close attention and maintained a great interest in every phase of the procedure.

FOUR INJURED IN STREET CAR CRASH

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Four persons were seriously injured today when a North Broadway street car jumped the track and turned on its side while attempting to make a sharp curve at Mission and Lincoln park avenue. The motorman claimed the brakes failed to work. The car was traveling at high speed when the accident occurred, witnesses said.

Harry Edwards and Stephen Barton, property men at a moving picture studio, were the most seriously hurt. Edwards sustained a wrenched back and other injuries. Barton was pinned under the wreckage, making it necessary to pry the car off his body before he could be removed.

MISSIONARY FROM INDIA WILL SPEAK

A very interesting and instructive illustrated lecture on missionary work in India will be given Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the Seventh-Day Adventist church, corner of Ross and Fifth streets.

THE HOOVER BOOM

The Hoover cartoon appearing on this page is simply an item of news.
It emanates from a nonpartisan news agency, the "National Enterprise Association," and appears in hundreds of papers of all kinds of political affiliations.

Unquestionably the Hoover boom is the biggest political news of the day. And, as already has been stated by this paper, it is hailed with shoulish glee by all the old-time irreconcilable stand-patters of the Republican party in California, not to mention the anti-Johnsonites of all other classifications. But Mr.
Hoover isn't to blame for that.

The Los Angeles Times and San Diego Union are hollering their heads off for Hoover. But so is the Los Angeles Express. And even the Fresno Republican, while not mentioning his presidential candidacy,
has a strong editorial extolling
Hoover's work in war and in peace.

There is lots of time between now and June for presidential booms to rise and fall, but in passing it may be remarked that the Republican party might go farther and do worse than to make Herbert Hoover its nominee for president.

To give the readers of the Register information on this intensely interesting and vitally important subject, we quote below salient parts of editorials that have appeared within the past few days in leading California newspapers:

Referring to the unqualified endorsement of Hoover's candidacy by the New York World, the Los Angeles Express says:

"When, therefore, such a newspaper, known for its integrity and capacity, and fortified in its leadership by achievement, declares
'The American people are tired of professional politicians,' it speaks in abundance of knowledge."

In brief, this leading Democratic newspaper sees in Hoover of California, one whose record supplies exactly the platform that fits the demands of this most difficult period and gives pledge of precisely that sort of constructive business service which is the whole country's greatest need.

"The members of the Republican party, facing new problems that demand new leadership, will decide their own future. Conventions must register the party's will, or, failing to be responsive, prove to be mere partisan utilities. Already throughout the party rises the tide of a patriotic determination resolved to impress its purpose upon the politicians. Its manifestations are evident in California as in New York, for instrumentalities have been created whereby the collective judgment of the Republicans of this state on these great issues is to be ascertained and given opportunity of expression. Already they are in action and the revelations they yield of Hoover's strength in his own party, in his own state will amaze the politicians. Day by day, it becomes more and more apparent that the rank and file of the Republican party, not the politicians, will determine the party's presidential choice."

Under the heading, "Hoover, Peace Preserver," the Fresno Republican says:

"The position of Herbert Hoover today in the admiration of the American people seems not to be an isolated phenomenon. It is a true reflection of the attitude of the world toward him as a whole. The peace is the climax of our fervor.
Even our joy in victory is lost in our demand that victory shall bring what we set out to have it bring, peace for us and for the rest of the world forever."

"Persons typify our attitudes toward abstract ideas, even such vivid abstractions as war. And all great wars have given us vivid personalities. In our Civil war, they were Grant and Lee. In our Revolutionary war, Washington and Lafayette. Napoleon and Wellington, Garibaldi, Von Moltke,—names by the score rise to our lips when we think of war. Is it not notable that the man whose name is chief in the minds of the American people today is not Pershing, nor Haig, nor even Poch,—it is a man whose work had nothing to do with the works of war, whose whole claim to public attention is that he gave his years to undoing the damage of war, to preserving from the wreck of war
what he could salvage by conserving institutions and processes of peace for the use of humanity
when the war should have spent itself."

The Los Angeles Times editorial is headed, "Hoover the Man!" It is printed double column width in ten-point type, and says in part:

"For the first time in American political history a young Lochinvar has come out of the West, big enough and popular enough to shatter eastern prejudice against a western product, and be elected President. This year California has a favorite son, and he is so great that two political parties are rivals for the honor of naming him as their candidate. That man is Herbert C. Hoover."

"Hoover is a staunch supporter of Republican policies. His activities as a mining engineer and as an organizer of great enterprises have forced him to spend much of his time in recent years abroad; but he began voting the Republican ticket when McKinley was a candidate for President and has not since departed from that faith. His certificate of membership in the New York Republican Club should set at rest all doubts concerning his party preference."

"Hoover is as much the man of the hour in 1920 as was Abraham Lincoln in 1860. The two have many traits in common. Both worked with their hands; both educated themselves; both cared much for the essential and little for the superfluous; and both live in the hearts of the common people. Hoover lives in an economic age, in an industrial era; and it is largely to his economic understanding that he owes his present popularity."

The San Diego Union doesn't so much endorse Hoover as it damns Johnson. Under the heading, "Canvassing Hoover," the Union says:

"The 'Hoover boom' for the presidency seems to be developing from a
'ground-swell' into a 'tidal wave.'
Not that this movement is absolutely certain to overwhelm either of the great national conventions,
but it has assumed proportions superior to those of any other tentative candidate for the nomination
now in the running."

"We learn from the Washington correspondent of the Boston Transcript that the World's boom for Hoover 'sent a cold chill down Democratic spines.' Democratic members of congress who were interviewed regarding it displayed an irritation that was amusing. Most of them demanded to know if Hoover is a Democrat, and, as no one could testify that he is, they topped off with the remark that they would not support him. Some even went to the extreme of charging that he is an 'Englishman,' because of his long residence in Great Britain. None of the gentlemen who questioned Mr. Hoover's Democracy was prepared to state in terms what a 'Democrat' is today, but it is very easy to figure out what they meant.
Their idea of a Democrat is a man who if elected President of the United States will appoint only Democrats to public office; and the Democratic politicians know very well that Mr. Hoover as President would do nothing of the kind, even if Democrats elected him."

San Diego's Lead

San Bernardino Sun

In the hurlyburly of these perilous times we may have short memories
for the events that are really historical, but the San Diego Union recalls that Uncle Sam was not a pioneer in the business of deporting radicals.
In particular, Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman. On the contrary, several years ago the "Wob-blies" undertook to run things in the southern city, and a citizen committee organized somewhat on the plan of swift justice for certain crimes in southern states. No list of 'Who's Who' was ever printed in connection with the San Diego developments, but they were in sufficient strength that they firmly and forcibly led Berkman and Goldman and the whole aggregation of I. W. W.'s to the northern city limits and headed them toward New York, where they ultimately arrived, en route to that dear Russia.

One in Four

Kansas City Star

In connection with the problem of the danger to the teachers' profession through inadequate pay, consider the question of illiteracy in the United States.

We had been going on in the comfortable feeling that the census showed only 8.4 per cent of the men of voting age unable to read and write. That didn't seem excessive when the number of aliens was taken into account. But the experience of the draft jarred us out of our complacency. The examining boards learned that one man in four whom they examined was unable to read and write English.

When the census enumerator asked an illiterate whether he could read and write, shame impelled him to answer "yes," in a very large number of cases. But when he came before the examining board, he had to prove what he could do. That was why the percentage was shoved up from 8.4 to 24.9.

With such a situation, with one quarter of our population unable to exercise the fundamental functions of citizenship, we certainly can't permit our teaching force to be still further demoralized. It ought to be expanded, not contracted.

One On Daniels

San Bernardino Sun

One of the delectable and edifying incidents of the narration of Admiral Sims when he appeared before the senate naval affairs committee and declared the morale of the navy was "shot to pieces" was his statement that he had received from Secretary Daniels a note asking him what he was going to do for Bagley.

Commander Bagley, brother-in-law of Secretary Daniels, lost his ship in a battle with the enemy and later was awarded out by the Secretary for a distinguished service medal.
"I replied," said Admiral Sims,
"that it was opposed to all the traditions of the navy to reward an officer who had lost his ship in an encounter with the enemy."

As is well known, this did not interfere with Secretary Daniels taking steps to keep a distinguished service medal in the family. However, Commander Bagley, who is evidently a man of sense, called from abroad that he did not regard himself as entitled to the distinction. Admiral Sims has taken pains to commend Commander Bagley's work as a naval officer, but at the same time he thinks certain others more entitled to medals of distinction.

Can't Farm Out the Job

(From the Riverside Press)

The reaction that the Press gets from the annual report of Probation Officer Mathews is that there is tremendous need of a revival of parental responsibility. The job of bringing up children cannot be farmed out to the school, the church, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A.,
the Boy Scouts and other organizations; and most of the instances of juvenile delinquency are really cases of the delinquency of parents.

There are some sad cases of delinquency due to broken homes; and there the wise aid of teachers, the sympathetic and helpful influence of pastors, and the watchful care of public authorities and social service organizations are urgently needed. But the fact remains that most of the cases of juvenile delinquency that have shocked Riverside in recent weeks occurred in so-called good families where father and mother are both on the job and where conditions are apparently normal. And yet some of these fathers and mothers think it is all right for their boys to have unrestricted use of automobiles for all-night joy rides and for their girls to come strolling in at 4 o'clock in the morning after a night of riotous dissipation. The easy complacency of these people in the light of the peril their children face is unbelievable.

With parents taking that attitude, is it strange that children have no respect for authority and no sense of restraint. It is pretty late to begin with some of them now,
but there is a younger generation coming on and parents need to be aroused to a sense of their responsibility to control and direct the lives of their children with a firm hand.

Salacious plays, suggestive films, the public dance and other sources of evil need to be watched and curbed, but the fact remains that many parents take no pains to see that their children have wholesome recreation instead of the other sort.
The work of censoring needs to begin in the home and to begin early in the life of the child.

There seems to have been a general loosening of the moral restraints since the close of the war and the experiences of Riverside are being duplicated in other cities. Some parents are sowing the seeds of life long sorrow by the indifference they show to the conduct of their children; and there is urgent need of an old-fashioned revival of home responsibility. If the average man cannot escape
the responsibility of being his brother's keeper, the responsibility of the fathers and mothers for guiding and safeguarding the lives of their children is tenfold greater.

The white moth to the closing bine,
The bee to the opened clover,
And the Gypsy blood to the Gypsy blood
Ever the wide world over.

Ever the wide world over, lass,
Ever the trail held true,
Over the world and under the world
And back at the last to you.

The wild hawk to the wind swept sky,
The deer to the wholesome world,
And the heart of a man to the heart of a maid,

Corporation of California, which is buying big groves in all sections, purchased the H. O. Smith eighty acres of navel, Valencia, sweets, tangerines, lemons and grapefruit at East Highland for $130,000. The Harzick estate sold the old homestead grove on the East Highlands bench, twenty-five acres of navel and Valencia, for $80,000, to W. V.
Ranney, of San Diego. David Parry on West Domestic Avenue sold five acres of navel to Leon Smith for $9000. C. W. McIntosh sold his six acres of lemons to J. E. Knott of Elsinore for $14,000. Leon Smith

PARIS POLICEMEN A SCARCE ARTICLE

PARIS, Feb. 3.—Paris is suffering from a new crisis, a crisis of policemen, whose insufficient number in the day as well as in the night time makes people doubt whether it is safe to be in Paris.
The city which is now more jammed during the day than ever before, is more deserted over night than during an airplane bombardment in war-time.

People who have to be out for their business between midnight and five o'clock in the morning, can walk for miles without meeting a single policeman.

Policemen are very hard to recruit in France. In Paris, owing to the war, the effectiveness of the police force were diminished and it has not been possible to replace those who did not return. Further, while before the war, four or five hundred new policemen were sufficient every year, there are needed today 2500.

The report that President Wilson is to spend the summer recuperating in Tustin has not yet been cir-

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT IS OPPOSED BY JUDGE

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—"Abolish capital punishment and fewer murders will be committed," Judge Robert E. Crowe, of the criminal court here declared. "Why it is I cannot say but Chicago courts can only convict 50 per cent of those charged with murder. Eighty per cent of those charged with other crimes are convicted. The only reason I can see for this is the jury. The jury, when a murder case faces them, become worried over the probable long impanelment and in order to shorten it they fail to return a conviction for the culprit."

"A remedy for this is do away with capital punishment and fix the sentence for all such cases at life imprisonment. When I sentence a man to hang now it is because it is the only sure way to prevent a recurrence of the crime. As it is now, if a murderer is sentenced to life imprisonment the term is rarely served. After a few years the case comes up before a pardon board and the defendant is released. So when I say do away with capital punishment, include the pardon board.
Then when a murderer is sentenced to life imprisonment, life it will be.
A person with murder in his heart will think twice before he commits crime if he knows life imprisonment is the punishment."

Fresh plastering in a new house at South Pasadena was badly mauled and damaged by thoughtless children on their way home from school.
much to the aggravation and extra expense of the owner of the house.
The South Pasadena Record, in commenting on the thoughtless destructiveness of the children, says such things are nearly always the fault of the parents of the children. As the young ones are trained at home
in taking care of their own property, and of the things at home, so they will act outside. After thinking it over, and recollecting that our own youngsters are well trained in that respect, we have concluded that the Record editor is right.

Talk about your pep: Over at Alhambra they showed the real thing
the other day. Having a new city park that needed fixing up, 250 to 300 citizens gathered there one day and planted the trees, leveled the ground laid out the tennis courts, built benches and benches, laid out walks and did everything but make the grass grow, all in one day. The ladies helped by serving a picnic lunch at noon, and it was no imitation lunch either, as 45 dozen sandwiches and 14 gallons of coffee were surrounded by the workers. The work as well as the lunch consumed was a demonstration of what can be accomplished by everybody pull-

High School P. T. A.

The first and only evening meeting of the High School P. T. A. will be held Thursday evening, February 5, at 7:30 o'clock in the music room of the high school. Fathers and mothers of all students are urged to be present. The parents of the new students are particularly invited to come.

Mrs. Bunker Entertains

Music and the reading of a number of interesting articles were delightful features of an afternoon spent at the home of Mrs. Wm. Bunker, 1210 West Third street, recently, following a delicious luncheon. Mrs. S. Edmondson of Los Angeles, a house guest of Mrs. Bunker, assisted the hostess in making the affair very enjoyable for the guests, who were Mesdames L. P. Williams, E. J. Welch, L. Cliver, of this city, the out-of-town guests being Mesdames A. D. McKee and H. W. Feraday.

Miscellaneous Shower Given

A pretty miscellaneous shower was given Friday evening by Miss Ella Sloum at her home, 511 East Walnut street, for Miss Lila Crane of Garden Grove, who is soon to be married.

Poinsettias were tastefully arranged to provide a cheerful setting for the delightful affair and delicious refreshments were served. Those who gathered to shower gifts on Miss Crane and wish her future happiness were Mesdames Fred Mott, Roy Crane, L. A. Crane, Morris Cain, Milo Harris, Allan Phelps; Misses Elizabeth Sheppard, Gertrude Carnahan, Ethel Walker, Lillian Walker, Gladys Thomas, and the hostess, Miss Ella Sloum.

Surprise Birthday Party

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Duckett, at Tustin, was the scene last evening of a pleasant little party—a surprise to Mr. Duckett on his birthday.

At 7:30 o'clock five or six machines tooted into the Duckett driveway and Harry came out in his smoking jacket and slippers to find the yard swarming with his old-time friends and associates of the Register staff.

Immediately lights flashed into brilliance all over the house, and soon a wood fire was roaring in the dining room fireplace and everybody was talking and laughing at the same time. And so it continued throughout the evening—no cards, no dancing, no formality—just such a talk-fest as intimate friends only can thoroughly enjoy.

The visitors had brought with them a big birthday cake, baked by Miss Pauline Chandler, Mrs. Baumgartner's niece, and a freezer full of ice cream, etc., and toward the close of a delightful evening of social intercourse the girls went into the kitchen and brewed hot chocolate, which was served with the cake and ice cream, supplemented by oranges, nuts and home-made candy which Mrs. Duckett "just happened to have on hand."

At a very seemly hour the guests departed, wishing Mr. Duckett "many returns of the day without growing older."

GOD'S TOUCH

Upon the crowded thoroughfare
She passed me by—
Her face aglow,
Fired by the awaking soul;
And as she came abreast
She looked my way and smiled;
And all the heavy clouds of doubt
Rolled from the brightness of the day
Like some gigantic scroll.

Another time, not long ago,
When all the world
Was dark and drear,
I trod a village street
Where children were at play;

When suddenly I heard a laugh,
The silvery, flute-like laugh of youth,
And all the gloom within my breast
Was quickly swept away.

One twilight hour I sat beside
A murmuring sea;
Its cadence fell
Upon my troubled soul
In rhythmic threnody;
Just then, where sombre gray
Had been,
A golden glory burst in flame
And gleamed across the waves
Into
The very heart of me.

First Travelers

The First Travelers Section of the Ebell Club came very near getting into politics yesterday, at the meeting at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Stephen Ross, on South Main street.

Mrs. Baumgartner, the leader, said she thought it was good for women to interest and inform themselves along political lines—indeed, it was their duty as citizens to do so. Therefore, she would read from the Pictorial Review two articles; one by Will H. Hays, Republican national chairman, entitled, "What the Republican Party Offers the Woman Voter," and one by Homer S. Cummings, Democratic national chairman, entitled, "What the Democratic Party Offers the Woman Voter."

Much interest and very decided opinions as well as strong party feeling was manifested by the discussion which ensued.

Another matter of much interest was a resolution, offered by Mrs. H. C. Dawes, and unanimously adopted, to this effect:

"Resolved, That the oldest section of the Ebell Travelers go on record as condemning profiteering in the necessities of life; and that we pledge ourselves to effectuate such condemnation by refusing to buy goods of any kind at unjustifiable prices."

As usual, the meeting ended in an hour of social pleasure, during which refreshments were served.

Those in attendance were: Mesdames J. V. Bishop, J. P. Baumgartner, H. C. Dawes, J. P. Dryer, Chas. Kendall, M. Heathman, J. J. Roper, Wm. Smart, Linn Shaw, E. B. Smith, Geo. Smith, J. W. Van Cleave, Alice Tubbs.

Mexican Parents Entertained

Parents of the children of the Santa Fe Mexican school were delightfully entertained Friday at the school by the G. A. R. at one of the monthly socials planned and given under the auspices of the G. A. R. for the purpose of promoting better community feeling.

The excellent program was opened by a salute to the flag and a song by the school children, led by their teacher.

Mrs. Russell Coleman then sang two charming songs, playing her own accompaniment on the guitar.

Miss Charlotte Dresser delighted with some piano numbers. Miss Rena Cathcart of the International Institute in Los Angeles gave a splendid address setting forth the necessity of learning the ideals and customs of the people we come in contact with when we go to a foreign country to make our home.

Major Carrier of the high school presented two very good pictures on the high school machine, that were greatly appreciated.

At the close of the program the ladies of the G. A. R. served doughnuts and coffee.

Mrs. Salis, in behalf of the Mexican parents then expressed thanks for the pleasures of the evening, Miss Cathcart interpreted for Mrs. Salis.

Travel Section No. 2 Meets

Twenty-five ladies of Travel Section No. 2 of the Ebell society and five guests, met at the beautiful home of Mrs. J. E. Liebig, 628 Spurgeon street, yesterday afternoon, where one of the most enjoyable meetings of the season was held. Mrs. Liebig was assisted in her

PERSONALS

James R. Scudder, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Scudder, 1513 Hickey St., is home after serving eighteen months overseas as a mechanic in the aviation corps. On his way home he visited his former home in Huntington, L. I., and stopped over in Kenwood, N. Y., and Topeka, Kansas, and also visited his sister in Berkeley, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fullerton have as their guests for a few days Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fullerton of Glendale, parents of the former and Mrs. Carl Soffel, of Hicksville, Long Island, N. Y., mother of Mrs. Wm. Fullerton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain were visitors in Los Angeles today. Rev. P. F. Schrock was a morning traveler to Los Angeles today.

W. C. Mitchell was an early morning P. E. passenger to Los Angeles. Charles Spicer transacted business in Los Angeles today.

M. S. Cloyes and Miss Inez Cloyes went to Los Angeles this morning. J. W. Harris was among the Santa Anans in Los Angeles today.

Carl Denton, director of the Portland, Ore., symphony orchestra, surprised Mrs. Ida Weber, aunt of his wife, with a brief visit yesterday. Mr. Denton is a musician of high standing in his home city and honorary local representative of the Royal Academy of Music of London. He has come down the coast to hear various symphony orchestral concerts and speaks in highly complimentary manner of them. He went from here to Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, Jr., went to Los Angeles today to remain two days. Mr. Henderson has severed his connection with the Southern California Auto Club and will spend two days with Behrens & Co., general agents for the Continental Casualty Co., with which he will be connected here. ## DODSON WOULD STOP SALE OF CALOMEL

Says Calomel is Mercury and Acts Like Dynamite on Your Liver

Dodson is making a hard fight against calomel in the South. Every druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason, Dodson's Liver Tonic is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tonic is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tonic is personally guaranteed by every druggist. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.—Adv.

SEEKS DAMAGES THREE ESTATES ARE TAKEN FOR PROBATE OF $4507 FOR ACCIDENT

Damages for $4,507 are sought in an action brought yesterday by Walter Meyer, now in the United States navy, through his father, Henry F. Meyer of 410 Wellington avenue, against Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Witt of this city.

The complaint, filed by Attorney F. C. Drumm of Orange, alleges that on Feb. 5, 1919, a motorcycle on which Walter Meyer was riding was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Witt. Meyer received a compound fracture of one leg, and was laid up for several weeks.

The assertion in the complaint is that the motorcycle was on North Main street going south behind a truck, and the machine driven by Mrs. Witt was going south behind another machine, and Mrs. Witt passed the machine in front of her and as a result of careless driving struck the motorcycle on which Meyer and another young man were riding.

Mrs. Witt was arrested for careless driving. She won her case on an appeal. Through the action now brought the case comes up for decision in the civil court.

New Hair Growth After BALDNESS

HAIR GROWN ON MR. BRITTAIN'S BALD HEAD BY INDIANS' MYSTERIOUS HAIR GROWER

My head at the top and back was absolutely bald. The scalp was shiny. An expert said that as he thought the hair roots were extinct, and there was no hope of my ever having a new hair growth. Yet now, at an age over 66, I have a luxuriant growth of soft, strong, lustrous hair! No trace of baldness. The pictures show here are from my photographs.

Indians' Secret of Hair Growth

At a time when I had become discouraged at trying various hair lotions, tonics, specialists' treatments, etc., I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian "medicine man" who had an elixir that he asserted would grow my hair. Although I had but little faith, I gave it a trial. From recent photo. To my amazement a light fuzz soon appeared. It developed, day by day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as prolific as in my youthful days.

At a time when I had become discouraged at trying various hair lotions, tonics, specialists' treatments, etc., I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian "medicine man" who had an elixir that he asserted would grow my hair. Although I had but little faith, I gave it a trial. From recent photo. To my amazement a light fuzz soon appeared. It developed, day by day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as prolific as in my youthful days.

Obviously, the hair roots had not been dead, but were dormant in the scalp, awaiting the fertilizing potency of the mysterious pomade. I negotiated the hair, and came into possession of the principle for preparing this mysterious elixir, now called Kotalko, and later had the recipe put into practical form by a chemist.

That my own hair growth was permanent has been amply proved. And my children, have reported satisfactory results from Kotalko.

How YOU May Grow YOUR Hair

My honest belief is that hair roots rarely die even when the hair falls out through dandruff, fever, excessive dryness or other disorders. I have been told by experts that when hair falls out the roots become imbedded within the scalp, covered by hard skin, so that they remain for a time like bulbs or seeds in a bottle which will grow when fertilized. Shampoos (which contain alkalis) and hair lotions which contain alcohol are enemies to the hair, as they dry it making it brittle. Kotalko contains those elements of nature which give new vitality to the scalp and hair.

PROVE FOR YOURSELF

Get a box of the genuine Kotalko at a reliable druggist's. A 25-cent GUARANTEE with each box. A small testing box of Kotalko (with testimonials, etc.) may be obtained by sending ten cents, silver or stamps, to my address below.

CITRUS CROP IS RICH HARVEST FOR STATE

The bumper 1918-1919 citrus fruit crop has again emphasized the importance of this product to the state of California, writes E. A. Conns, general agent for the Pacific Fruit Express, in the Southern Pacific Bulletin. Not only have the growers themselves reaped a golden harvest, but the many other interests owing their existence to this wonderful industry, have assisted materially in the wave of unprecedented prosperity experienced in this great commonwealth of ours.

The total shipments for the industry during the past season were 35,913 carloads of oranges and grape fruit and 9963 carloads of lemons, making an aggregate of 45,876 carloads.

In dollars and cents this means a return to shippers P.O.B., California, of the enormous sum of about $75,600,000, with a delivered value in the wholesale markets of $100,000,000 and on which the consumer has paid approximately $160,000,000.

Millions of Boxes

In the number of packages or containers, this crop represents 16,591,800 boxes of oranges and grape fruit, and 4,044,980 boxes of lemons or a grand total of 20,636,780 boxes. Little did the old Franciscan Fathers realize to what proportions the citrus fruit crop has grown when in 1769 they started north from Lower California, entering what is now the state of California, establishing twenty-one missions under the direction of Father Junipero Serra, and bearing with them as a reminder of their fatherland and seeking to satisfy their palates, seedling orange trees of the same varieties as those grown along the Mediterranean Sea and south coast of Spain.

In 1834 two small groves were planted at Los Angeles for home use. In 1841 two acres were set out to oranges as a business venture, and it is thought this was the first orchard in the state planted with a view to commercial profit. Records state that in 1862 there were only 2,500 trees in the entire state. The completion of the Southern Pacific railroad in 1873 greatly facilitated the marketing of the fruit outside of California.

Navel Introduced

The orange now known as the Washington Navel was introduced by the United States Department of Agriculture from Bahia, Brazil, in 1870, and the real beginning of our navel orange of commerce dates from the sending of two orange trees propagated from those brought from Brazil to Mrs. L. C. Tibbets, Riverside. This orange was far superior to the many other varieties then growing in Southern California, a large number of which were from those trees planted in the old Mission gardens by the Franciscan fathers.

As described by G. Harold Powell, "this orange was a prolific bearer, the fruit of fine quality, the flesh meaty, juicy and seedless, and the skin of a texture that insured good shipping quality, of a rich deep orange color. The trees were of medium size, which made the groves more manageable than those of the tall-growing seedlings. The Washington Navel was widely planted in Southern California, the state acquired a world-wide reputation for its citrus fruits, and a new era in orange culture in America began."

The Bureau of Crop Estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture has estimated the 1919-20 crop of oranges as follows:

Northern California	182,000
Central California	2,100,000
Los Angeles County	6,575,000
Orange County	6,525,000
Riverside County	1,564,000
San Bernardino County	4,148,000
San Diego County	128,000
Ventura County	194,000
The State	17,516,000

This number of boxes is equivalent to approximately 37,900 cars on the present basis of loading, i. e., 462 boxes per car, made up of 33 rows of boxes, seven boxes crosswise of car and two tiers high. This estimate represents conditions as of December 1, 1919, for the total production of all varieties, including grape fruit, which will probably amount to 600 or 700 cars.

The lemon crop promises to run approximately 5,310,000 boxes, a very large increase over any previous season, due to new bearing acreage and older trees.

Permits have been granted to William Wood and William Biener, allowing them to stage Amateur Boxing bouts, at the Grand Opera House, Santa Ana, every two weeks. The first bouts will take place Thursday evening, February 5th, at 8 o'clock. Ladies will be made welcome, as well as men.

AMUSEMENTS

MISS MORRISEY, A REAL FEMINIST, TO SING AT YOST'S

Marie Morrisey, who will be heard in a concert at Yost's tomorrow night, is one of those dreadful "new women." In the first place, she has a career and follows it ardently. Of course, that isn't so bad, for if a woman happens to be gifted with a beautiful voice like Miss Morrisey's, tradition says it is her duty to exercise it for the benefit of her fellow man.

In the second place, Miss Morrisey is an athlete. She is an enthusiastic swimmer and an expert diver. One of her favorite ways of spending her vacation is by taking long tramps in the woods. She thinks nothing of walking eight to twelve miles a day in the summer time, and she rejoices greatly in the hardening of her muscles that results: Her latest hobby is horseback riding.

"You see, riding isn't so easy as it looks," she says, rather ruefully. "It has a technique all its own." And then she mourns because she isn't able to take a horse along with her in her pocket when she goes on a concert tour!

In the third place Miss Morrisey is a suffragist—not only since the amendment was passed—but for a long time before that. She is perfectly convinced women should have the privilege of putting the right person in the right office.

NUGGETS OF NEWS

From Northern Orange County

E. L. Cole, of Buena Park, has been quite ill for sometime past and has been taken to a hospital at Anaheim for treatment.

A marriage license was issued in Los Angeles to Merle C. Goebel, 39, and Minerva Folsom, 29, both of Buena Park.

H. W. Sheppard, of Fullerton, who was injured when struck by an automobile at the corner of Spadra and Amerigo some ten days ago, is able to be out. He is compelled to use crutches on account of one of his ankles being sprained.

At the First Christian church at Fullerton eight boys organized a Y. M. C. A. club for the purpose of Bible study and sports. The name of the club is the "Fullerton Premiers." The officers are president, Eugene Hale; vice president, Earl Hanson; secretary and treasurer, Charles Thamer, Jr. The leader is Rev. McKee assisted by Blaine Martin. The regular meeting night will be Friday at 7 o'clock sharp. The Hustlers of Orange took charge of the organization of the club and later they gave a feed to the new club of boys after they had been received into the fellowship of the Y. M. C. A. boys of the county.

Letters from "Bob" Johnston, formerly of the Herald at Anaheim, and now at Tucson, Ariz., bring the good news that he is steadily improving and is greatly encouraged over his condition.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hartrant on North East street, Anaheim, was the scene of a merry gathering when they entertained for a group of old South Dakota friends, Major and Mrs. Edwin McKillop being the honor guests. Major McKillop is still in U. S. army service in the medical department and has just been transferred to Los Angeles from the Letterman hospital in San Francisco. Before entering the service he lived in Huntington Beach.

La Hacienda Alta Verde, the home of Prof. and Mrs. Carl Sumner Knopf of Fullerton, was the scene of the usual monthly festivities when a group of Junior college students attended the "at home." These little social functions are entirely informal. It is simply open house to all students and faculty. Games, music and talk serve to bring the students into closer fellowship with each other. The "at homes" were instituted to give a touch of real college life to the junior college.

BLACK, WIFE AND GUEST IN MACHINE ACCIDENT

A. C. Black and wife and Col. Moore, retired Canadian officer, who is visiting here, yesterday felt the sensation of being in a wreck, and while none was hurt, all were more or less shaken up.

They were returning from Los Angeles last evening in Black's automobile. Coming out of the city on Seventh street, Black was driving along near the Orphanage when one of the front wheels of the machine broke off and he lost control of the machine.

The car bumped into the curbing, with considerable damage resulting to the machine. The car is an enclosed machine and none was thrown out.

The machine was brought home today.

JEWISH RELIEF DRIVE COMES DURING WEEK MAR. 15-22

Preliminary Steps In Organization Taken at Meeting Last Night

"The Jews in America have helped this government in its financing and have contributed to its support in every demand, and now the time has come when the American people should reciprocate by contributing funds for the relief of the millions of Jews overseas who today are suffering for the necessities of life, and who need assistance for a time until they can re-establish themselves."

This is what Earl C. Hodges, state worker in the Jewish relief campaign, told a group of local men at a dinner at James' last night, the men being called together for discussion of plans for organizing a drive in Santa Ana and Orange county. It was a body of representative men, the banks, clergy and business men being represented.

R. L. Bisby was chairman of the evening and the result of the discussion was the appointment of a committee of three to select a man to act as chairman of the drive in Santa Ana. Rev. P. F. Shrock, R. L. Bisby and Col. S. H. Finley were named as such committee. County organization will be made later on.

Hodges is not a Jew. He is in sympathy with the movement to aid the stricken Jews of foreign countries—a race that has long been ill-treated, and which has suffered severely in the great world war. He has given up his own private interest to become identified with the movement and has organized the campaigns in several different states.

The week of March 15-22 has been chosen for the drive in Southern California and preliminary work is now under way. Southern California's quota is $400,000, with Orange county assigned about $17,500, it being based on 20 per cent of the sums contributed by the county and the United War Workers campaign.

Harrassed at Home
"The Jews in their native home have been run over eleven times by advancing and retreating armies, and have suffered severe persecutions for ages past," said Hodges. "For the first time in history the Jewish people are asking Gentiles for help. The Jewish people in the past have taken care of their own people. The task at this time is too large for them to take care of themselves, and in the United States they now are asking help of those whom they have helped in the past."

"The Jews of this country have been loyal to the government and to the people, and have bought liberally of government securities and contributed freely to funds for relief work. It is only right that Gentiles should now help them in relieving distress among their own people. Overseas they today are suffering because of their allegiance to the Allies."

"The Jews have started a five-year relief campaign. They must be supported until they can again become producers. Thousands who were driven from home are now returning. They have no clothes and wear only a cloth to shield their nakedness. They need the necessities of life."

Jews Not Beggars
"The Jews never have been beggars."

E. T. Meredith Makes a Quick Rise To Fame

New Secretary of Agriculture Started as Penniless Boy on Iowa Farm

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—From a penniless boy on an Iowa farm to Secretary of Agriculture in President Wilson's cabinet and millionaire farm paper publisher!

Such has been the rise of Edwin T. Meredith, in his life span of 43 years.

Meredith took his new seat yesterday, succeeding David S. Houston who thereupon became Secretary of the Treasury.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, contains no quinine. Insist upon Pape's!—Adv.

HEALTH BOARD IS ORGANIZED TO FIGHT FLU IF EPIDEMIC

Report No Cases of Spanish Type in the City at Present

If you have a cold go home and go to bed—don't stay at your business or mingle with crowds.

This is the advice of the Santa Ana Board of Health, which today has official existence, following its organization late yesterday afternoon. Dr. John Wehrly was elected as chairman of the board and appointment of Dr. Clark as city health officer by the city council was approved.

The city has been without a legally constituted board of health since last April, when the new council made appointment of the members among its first official acts, after it assumed the reins of government. The board is composed of Dr. John Wehrly, Prof. J. W. McCormac, John Cochran, J. M. Backs and C. F. Mitchell.

The council made the error of failing to appoint a physician on the board and the matter of organization by the board has been drifting along until this time, Dr. Wehrly having recently been made a member. The possibility of an epidemic of flu breaking out here is responsible for bringing the members together yesterday for organization.

There is no flu in the city at this time—that is not the character of flu that prevailed here a year ago—according to the statement of City Health Officer Clark and his deputy, W. W. Chandler.

There have been cases of what was thought to be flu reported by local physicians, who in each instance put a question mark after the name of the disease.

The fact that the patients have in almost every instance recovered and returned to work within three days after contracting what was supposed to be the flu is evidence to the physicians that what they had was not the Spanish flu. They have been mild cases of influenza or gripe, which are synonymous terms, in the opinion of Dr. Clark.

The experience with the epidemic of the year ago taught the people a lesson that is of value this year, and in a measure is preventing the disease getting a foothold here. Those who have become afflicted with a cold, accompanied by a temperature, have gone home and gone to bed—they have taken care of themselves. If this precaution is continued by everyone, the disease is going to have a hard time breaking out in Santa Ana.

The health officer and his deputy were directed to advise the school teachers of the city that where pupils show indications of a cold, that they be sent home at once, with notice to the parents that the children should be kept at home. The same thing will apply to teachers. If they have a cold, they are requested to remain at home.

No Spanish Flu
In the ones of gripe, influenza or flu, as one of them might choose to call it, that have come under the care of physicians, the absence of sneezing and watery eyes, characteristics of the Spanish flu, have been entirely absent.

In order that the city might be protected in every way possible against an epidemic, physicians of the city are urged to report every case of communicable disease to the city health officer without delay. With the state health officer now co-operating with the United States Public Health Service, facilities for reporting contagious disease have been provided that will make it much easier for the physicians to make the report. Printed and self-addressed post cards are provided for the doctors, the cards being franked by the government. There are two cards, one for communicable disease and one for influenza. The latter is a yellow card, and requires only the filling in of the names of the patients, ages and addresses.

The card for communicable diseases requires a little more time to fill out, as more details are necessary. The reportable diseases, as listed on this card, are: anthrax, beriberi, cerebro-spinal meningitis, chicken-pox, Asiatic cholera, dengue, diphtheria, dysentery, erysipelas, German measles, glanders, gonorrhea, infection, hookworm, influenza, leprosy, ichthyic encephalitis, malaria, measles, mumps, ophthalmia neonatorum, pellagra, plague, pneumonia, poliomyelitis, rabies, scarlet fever, smallpox, syphilis, tetanus, trachoma, tuberculosis, typhoid fever, typhus fever, whooping cough and yellow fever.

MORE ACTIVITY IN OIL FIELD AT HUNTINGTON BEACH

Number of New Leases Made During Last Week, With Monthly Payments

There have probably been more activity in the oil district during the past week than any week since the boom started, with the leasing of the Huntington Beach Company's holdings to the Standard Oil Co., about four months ago, says the Huntington Beach News.

The situation at the well is unchanged. It is expected, however, that the cable tools will soon start the drill through the cement with which the hole was sealed, Sunday, January 18. The men have all been working on the day shift, making a pit around the top of the hole, and other improvement incident to the change from the rotary to cable equipment.

There have been several offers of $1,000 per acre for land in the favored zone but so far as known there have been no sales, as no owners can be found who care to sell at this time.

There have been many offers for leases but the only ones reported as having been closed are the 40 acres owned by L. T. Wells, southwest of Talbert, and 40 acres held by Geo. C. Coker, south of Wintersburg. Wells received $200 per month and Coker $90 per month, according to the terms of the lease.

J. F. McKinney, who recently purchased the 40 acres on the boulevard north of the city, known as the Garcia place, has declined an offer of $500 per month on his tract, the difference between the interested parties being that McKinney wanted the payments to continue until the completion of the test well, and the buyer wanted them to cease when actual work was started to develop the property. This is now the largest tract on the mesa, in what has been termed oil-bearing lands by the geologists that has not been leased.

According to current reports, the cement in the well will be drilled with the rotary equipment.

Mother And Baby Again United, After She Had Consented To His Adoption

WHEATLEY BECOMES OWNER OF NEWPORT BEACH NEWSPAPER

The Newport News, weekly newspaper published at Newport Beach, has been sold by W. A. Cornelius to Charles R. Wheatley of Santa Ana. Wheatley has taken charge of the business, and will get out his first paper on Friday of this week.

For a number of years Cornelius has been engaged in helping U. S. Sam collect revenue, being connected with the internal revenue department as inspector and agent. The paper has been run for him by R. M. Durkee. Durkee is to remain associated with the News under the new ownership.

Wheatley is well known in this county as a newspaper man of ability. He was employed on the Santa Ana Blade in 1917 when he resigned his position to enlist with the Grizzlies, with which organization he went to France. Upon his return from overseas he took charge of the news department of the Anaheim Daily Herald.

Wheatley has unbounded faith and enthusiasm in the future of Newport harbor and in the future of the beach resorts, and in Wheatley the harbor and the resorts have a booster whose genuine good fellowship and capabilities will make his value to the community very soon felt.

TEST LAKE ELSINORE FOR OIL DEPOSITS

LAKE ELSINORE, Feb. 3.—With the arrival of F. G. Downey, one of the oldest oil drillers in the state, and W. G. Webb, metallurgist, mineralogist and geologist of San Francisco, and the admission by several neighboring ranchers that their land has been under lease for oil purposes for some time, the movement toward fully testing this field is under way. It is stated by geologists that there is a big break in the strata near here, and for that reason a greater probability of striking it. Messrs. Downey and Webb, will spend some time here looking over the situation. The land under lease was inspected and reported on favorably some time ago by experts, and the ranchers who leased their lands expect the early selection of a spot for the first well.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Mrs. Katherine Helms and her young son, Billy, are united once more, although it looked for a time they would never see each other again.

When Billy's father deserted his mother, before his birth, Mrs. Helms decided she would have the baby adopted so some one could provide a real home for him.

But the baby wasn't gone long, when Mrs. Helms repented and cried until he was brought back to her. Now she's happy, but as for Billy, he just yawns.

WILLED FORTUNE TO GERMAN MILITARISM

BERLIN, Feb. 3.—Long before the Versailles conference decreed there should be practically no German army or navy, Herr Knorr, Pan-German and true to the kaiser, passed away and left a will.

Under the terms of the testament, Knorr gave most of his fortune, consisting of property and securities, to the kaiser to be used for military purposes. Now the widow of the old man and her half-brother have gone to the courts to demand their share of his worldly goods.

The Knorrs argue the man would never have given the kaiser his property and money if he had known it could not have been used in the furtherance of German military policies. The former emperor's interests are being looked after by an attorney.

AVIATORS TO INSTALL AIR LINES IN CHINA

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—More than 100 aviation enthusiasts attended the sailing of the China Mail liner to bid a party of eighteen aviators and their families bon voyage. The party, which was headed by William Bonner, is en route to Hongkong to install an airship service between various Chinese ports and also into the interior. L. A. Scotchmer, one of the party, who was accompanied by Mrs. Scotchmer, is the veteran birdman of the party. He was one of the original aviators to enlist and was with the Curtiss interests more than seven years ago. Scotchmer will serve as an instructor. He expects to engage Chinese pilots after the service has been established.

IMPERIAL VALLEY'S STOCK INDUSTRY IS HIT BY VEGETABLES

The stock industry, which has been the pride of Imperial Valley, is giving ground to vegetables at a surprising rate.

So declared County Auditor W. C. Jerome, who returned yesterday from the valley, where he went to attend a meeting of the Wool Growers' Association.

"It looked to me," said Jerome, "as though no less than 50,000 acres of alfalfa has been plowed up this season so that the ground could be put into cotton, cantaloupes, lettuce, spinach and other vegetables."

"The farmers have come to the conclusion that they don't have to fight the hot summers in order to make big profits. They can grow winter and spring vegetables and make good money."

$250,000 THEATRE IN SIGHT FOR HOLLYWOOD

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Sid Grauman and J. L. Lasky, the latter an uncle of Jesse L. Lasky, have just acquired joint ownership of the property at the northwest corner of Hollywood boulevard and Orchid avenue, where it is proposed to erect a $250,000 picture theater, according to George D. Copeland of the Frank Meine Company, which made the sale. No statement, however, was forthcoming from either principal as to the proposed theater plan.

The site has a frontage of 150 by 240 feet. The consideration reported is approximately $60,000. For more than a year reports have gained currency that Sid Grauman intended to erect a theater in Hollywood, and several sites have been under consideration.

ADVOCATE STATE PARK
BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 3.—Dean F. G. Miller of the University of Idaho has recommended the setting apart of land adjoining Payette Lakes as a "recreational state park."

ENGINE LOAD OF BOOZE
BERLIN, Feb. 3.—Dry America is not the only place where they find new devices for whiskey smuggling every day.

Customs inspectors on the eastern border found a cold locomotive dead-heading behind the regular engine on an eastbound freight train. They became suspicious and on examining the boiler found this filled to the brim with spirits.

The inspectors confiscated the novel carrier of the smugglers.

DISINTERESTED MEN WILL PASS ON PAVING MAIN ST.

Committee Will Designate Blocks To Be Omitted If There Are Such

With some property owners objecting to repaving of certain blocks on Main and Fourth streets in which it is maintained new paving is not necessary, Councilman W. A. Greenleaf last night at the council meeting moved that a committee of three entirely disinterested parties be appointed to go over the streets and make decision as to what blocks should be left untouched, if any should be.

It was suggested the committee be composed of men familiar with such work who reside in other cities, and this suggestion will be acted on by Mayor Mitchell in the selection of the members.

Utility corporations will be officially notified at once of the proposed repaving of Main, First and East Fourth, in order that they might be prepared to enter upon the work when the time comes for operations. The council is boosting the preliminary work along as rapidly as possible so that when the winter rains are over the improvement can be undertaken.

Paving of the approaches to the Main street bridge was continued for an indefinite time, that investigation might be made as to the cause of the settling of the approaches.

He held that the work should have been a part of the costs of the bridge and done at the expense of the city, and protested against the work being done at this time, in view of the contemplated repaving of Main street north from First to the city limits. He said he believed the cost would be greater to have a small job of that character done as patch work than it would if it should be done when the paving of the street is in progress.

It developed that the fill for the approaches had settled some and that the Pacific Electric had been compelled on two different occasions to tamp its right of way over the fills. In view of this fact, the council decided to defer definite action for a time.

Confusing Lines.

Restriction of parking places on the corner of Main and Fourth that are not regular traffic corners has caused some confusion and has resulted in auto drivers finding their cars tagged by city officers when the machines were parked at these points. The corners are southeast and northwest corners of Main and Fourth streets, on Fourth street. Neither are traffic corners. The confusion comes in the red line marking the outside point of the restricted district. The lines are straight out from the curb, while parking is on the angle.

With the first stall outside of the drivers get confused and drive into redline marked on the angle, many what appears to be a stall formed by the white line on an angle and the red line straight from the curb. It is impossible to get all of any sized car into this space, yet many motorists drive their cars into it and leave them there.

The restrictions at these corners were made to give good clearance to traffic. There is more waste space than is necessary and it is probable that two or more additional stalls will be added in each of the zones. Two or three stalls may also be added on the west side of Main just south of Fourth, where restriction also is made on a non-traffic corner.

Asks Repair Costs.

J. W. Beckett, of Long Beach, whose automobile was damaged some when it struck a hole in the pavement on West Fifth street, requested the council to reimburse

LENNOX TEAM IS WALLOPED BY ORANGE

ORANGE, Feb. 3.—In a wildly exciting game at El Modena, the Orange ball club defeated Lankershim by a score of 4 to 3.

The game was extremely close and hard fought and the locals put over the winning run in the ninth after two were out.

Lankershim scored three runs in the third inning on three clean hits but the locals got down to work again and held them scoreless the rest of the game, scoring four times themselves.

A large crowd got their money's worth and the game was exciting from start to finish. Red Billman, the hurler imported by Lankershim for the occasion, pitched good ball, striking out ten men, but could not hold Orange down. In the ninth inning with Mitchell resting on third, Wallace grounded to Billman, who turned to throw first for an easy out but instead tried to hurl the ball over the boulevard, Mitchell romping in with the winning run.

Himrichs for Orange pitched a pretty game and with the exception of the third inning had the game well in hand. Orange got eight hits off Billman, while "Big Dutch" held Lankershim to 7.

This game leaves Orange, Lennox and Lankershim in a triple tie for the honors of the first half of the season in the Trolley League, the winner to play the leader of the second half of the season, now starting, for the championship of the Trolley League of Southern California.

Lankershim lived up to its reputation as an aggressive ball club, being so aggressive that it took several hundred cool heads to clear off the field at times so the game could continue.

TEN NEW SEMI-PRO. TEAMS GET STARTED

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Semi-pro baseball is on the up-grade in Southern California, according to Joe Pierrone. The past two weeks he has added ten new teams to the list of his booking schedule. Five of these were newcomers last week. They were teams representing the Los Angeles Athletic Club, Hollingsworth's All-Stars, National, Brass, Honky-Honkys and Arcadia.

CALIFORNIA FIVE DEFEATS WASHINGTON

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—California's basketball team nosed out the Washington State College quintette, 28 to 26 here last night. Capt. Anderson of California was the individual stellar performer with seven field goals. The same teams play again tonight.

NORWALK TIPS LLEWELLYNS
NORWALK, Feb. 3.—The Norwalk baseball club leaped out of the cellar league Sunday by handing an 8 to 2 trimming to the Llewellyn Iron Works. The game was played at Norwalk and marks the first game Norwalk has won in the second half of the Southern California Semi-Pro League schedule.

Thurston, one of the coming youngsters, was knocked from the box in the fourth. Five runs were gained off Jones, another youngster. Norwalk ..... 8 12 2
Llewellyn ..... 2 1 4

GIBBONS BEATS BROWN.
PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 3.—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul, scored an easy win over George "Knockout" Brown, Chicago, here last night in ten rounds. Brown's face and body were badly cut by Gibbons' slashing blows, while the St. Paul boxer escaped without a mark.

Sam Wade, of Pekin, beat Tony Caponi of Rock Island in eight rounds.

CUNNINGHAM IN P. C. L.
PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 3.—Pitcher J. H. Cunningham, a Seattle southpaw, has signed with the Portland Coast League team. Cunningham was recommended by Doc Wells, former trainer of the Portland team, who is now connected with the Seattle Y. M. C. A.

CARD-BEAR DATE ADVANCED
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Feb. 3.—The date of the California-Stanford annual dual track meet this year has been advanced two weeks to April 24, to prevent conflict with the final examination schedule at the State University, it was announced yesterday.

The annual baseball series between the two universities will be played April 17, 24 and 28, with the first and third games at Berkeley and the second at Stanford, it was announced.

KNOCKS OUT ROBERTS
NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 3.—Gene Tunney, the light heavyweight champion of the A. E. F., climbed another rung in fistiana last night when he disposed of Al Roberts, the Staten Island heavyweight, in one of the main bouts of the Blue Ribbon card of the Sportsmen's Club. Benny Valger, the French flash, administered a severe beating to Joey Fox, the British featherweight champion in their eight-round bout.

PLAIN BUSINESS PROPOSITION BY NAVY

The Navy Recruiting Station, 224 W. H. Spurgeon building, is offering a plain business proposition to all young men between the ages of 18 and 35, who wish to make certain of a long life of success and happiness. Any man who joins the navy has a good pay, gets free medical attention, good board and lodging, regular vacations every year, with the chance to travel and educate himself for future success in civil life.

"Uncle Sam is anxious to lend a helping hand to the men in his employ, towards getting a higher place and promotion," says R. W. Corson, one of the officers.

"All trades schools are open, and courses ranging from six to eighteen months are offered to those who are willing to learn and become expert in their chosen vocation.

Due to the shortage of men, wonderful opportunities are offered to the young man to become an electrical engineer, copper-smith, musician, expert accountant, radio operator, and in all the artificer branches, including ships-fitters, carpenters, painters, blacksmiths, pattern makers and moulders.

There is also a special class for firemen, who are interested in oil burning ships, and who wish to take a course in the Fuel Oil School. Many men are retiring from the U. S. Navy at the present time, at the age of 48, and are independent, due to the fact that Uncle Sam is paying them an income, ranging from $43 to $112 per month for the remainder of their life."

IMPROVE POMONA STADIUM
CLAREMONT, Feb. 3.—Extensive improvements are being made in the athletic grounds of Pomona College. The baseball field has been graded and repaired, while the hockey field is being practically made over. The college tennis courts have been re-built and are now in excellent condition for the coming season. Extensive grading, leveling and lining work, together with the repair work on the backstops, has made the Pomona courts among the best equipped in the South.

TRACK DATE CHANGED.
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Feb. 3.—The Stanford-California track meet will be held April 24 at Berkeley. Originally it was set for May 1. Dates set for the baseball series are April 17, 24 and 28.

him for the costs of repairs, amounting to $65. R. H. Hill appeared before the board in behalf of the claim. The matter was referred to a committee composed of Greenleaf and Dale.

A resolution relinquishing any claim the city might have to a strip of ground along Shelton street for a short distance north of Fifth, was passed. The strip is plotted as a street but never has been dedicated or deeded to street purposes and is not needed.

The transfer of $700 from the advertising fund to the Chamber of Commerce was ordered.

Street Superintendent Hoy announced that he had received a communication from the P. E. stating that the track crossing on East First street would be repaired at once.

A resolution establishing the grade on Seventeenth street, from Santiago to Maybury, was read and hearing of protests set for March 15.

Fire Hydrants Need Painting.
Declaring that some of the fire hydrants in the restricted parking district were becoming so dim that he doubted if many automobilists parking in front of them noticed them, Mayor Mitchell suggested that they be given a coat of red paint. The discussion resulted in no definite action.

Application of Biner and Wood for permission to conduct boxing matches at the Grand Opera house was granted, the events to be under the supervision of the police and fire commissions.

Greenleaf reported that satisfactory arrangements had been made for replacing the cement irrigating pipe on the N. E. Matthews place, made necessary by the opening of Myrtle street.

Application of Joe Brown for junk dealer's license was referred to Greenleaf and Chapman.

A protest against the paving of Tenth street from Van Ness to Parion was received, signed by Mrs. Marie Mead, Frank K. Pierce, Roy E. Morris and W. H. Zimmerman, claiming to represent three-fourths of the frontage in the block.

J. G. Robertson & Company were given permission to erect an electric sign for Townsend and Wyatt at 506 N. Broadway.

Upon recommendation of Tubbs, S. Rubin and S. Paul were issued a license for conducting a junk business on East Fourth street.

HOME BUILDERS ORGANIZE
EL CENTRO, Feb. 3.—An El Centro corporation has been formed for the purpose of building homes. Sixteen houses have already been contracted for.

The officers are: George W. Anderson, president; J. E. Davis, vice-president; J. S. Jones, secretary; O. G. Horne, treasurer, and Allan P. Nuffer, J. L. Travers, George Varney and J. Stewart Ross, directors. P. B. Fuller, Paul Black, R. W. Campbell and W. H. Brooks have assisted the organization financially. The capital will be $100,000.

gars and they never will be. We know they are a race of industrious and thrifty people. Those who have come to the United States have demonstrated their business qualifications by becoming successful merchants.

"The pulpit and press in every state has lined up and supported the campaign. It is true that our people have been called upon to give at frequent periods in the past. We have all felt the stress. While we have been hard driven in this is the only country today in position to give, and we cannot for one moment think of letting the suffering people of other countries continue in distress and dire need while we have an abundance here."

The funds collected will be placed in the hands of a treasurer in each district, and by him will be forwarded to the state treasury, thence to the national treasurer at Washington and final distribution made by American consuls, Red Cross representatives and other responsible agencies.

The quota for the nation is $75,000,000, with California's portion at $111,000. Northern California has promised to raise $700,000, leaving Southern California $400,000. It is hoped to make it $500,000. In nearly every state where drives have been conducted quotas have been exceeded by one-third.

Harry Haldeman of Los Angeles, is Southern California chairman and Walter L. Newton, secretary. Both were managers of Liberty loan drives and will give the Jewish relief campaign the same attention they did the other work.

Pastors of the city in attendance last night promised their hearty support in the campaign.

Those in attendance were Harry Lewis, J. C. Burke, R. L. Bisby, Horace Fine, E. B. Sprague, cashier of the Orange County Savings and Trust Company; W. B. Williams, cashier of the First National; E. E. Vincent, president of the California National Bank; Col. S. H. Finley, member of the Board of Supervisors; Rev. A. T. O'Rear, pastor Spurgeon Memorial; Rev. P. F. Shrock, pastor Congregational; Rev. F. G. Davies, First Baptist; Rev. W. H. Benton, Episcopal; Rabbi J. S. Boucher, B'nai B'rith; M. Karp, Sam Hurwitz, Sam Stein.

Hodges was accompanied by Misses Peggy Skinner, Lucille Warren and Sidney McMath of the directors' office in Los Angeles.

Thrift

It is not so much the amount of money you get as how you use it. What you get for it and what you save—that makes you or your family prosperous. Thrift is careful spending as well as wise saving. We have never known a more reckless and extravagant period in American life than this period. Children who formerly were taught to save, now often outdo their indulgent parents who frequently are compelled to deprive themselves that their sons and daughters shall have even wish gratified. No boy or girl can have a worse start in life. There is no more important training for a child than teaching it to save and invest its savings. Until such a habit is acquired. Thrift means better, higher, saner living, better homes, happier and better conditioned people. It develops character, self control, self denial. Help the boys and girls to acquire it.

IMPORTED MUSKOVITE EGGS FROM TURKEY AND EGYPT

During the last few years before the war the annual purchases of the United States in the Near East amounted to about $50,000,000. From Turkey the principal items making up a total of from $20,000,000 to $22,000,000, were tobacco, wool, mohair, skins, licorice root, carpets and rugs, opium, rose oil, figs, dates, nuts, cotton lace and a few mineral products—chrome, emery, mercury, meerschaum. From Egypt our principal purchases were long-staple cotton, of which we bought more than any other nation, except Great Britain.

Aden sent us several million dollars' worth of wool, coffee and skins. From Persia we naturally purchased carpets, although many Persian carpets found their way to the United States via Constantinople. Transcaucasia furnished us with licorice root, opium, wool and hard-woods to an amount of about $3,000,000 per annum. Waste rubber was the largest single item we received from Odessa and other ports of South Russia.

Rumania was the one country that did not sell to the United States as much as the value of our exports to it, as there was no market here for the main Rumanian products—cereals and petroleum. Bulgaria is the largest producer of rose oil, of which we bought a considerable quantity, together with tobacco and skins. Serbia's principal exports to this country were blister copper and plum jam, while Greece sent us tobacco, olive oil, cheese, currants and emery from Naxos.

With few exceptions, all of these goods are natural products which are more advantageous produced in these countries than in other parts of the world, and in which there will always be a steady trade. They show that the productive activities of these countries are principally agricultural and pastoral in character, and that consequently the region offers a permanent market for manufactured and finished articles of foreign origin.—Asia Magazine.

MAY DEVELOP BIG RUBBER INDUSTRY

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—Wide interest is being attracted here by word from the University of California that Drs. H. M. Hall and Thomas Goodspeed of the university staff have found a desert plant which produces the juice from which rubber is derived.

Scientifically the plant is called "chrysothamnus nauseosus," but the desert rat calls it "plain rabbit brush."

It grows profusely on the Mojave desert.

Interest in the announcement is stimulated by the fact that the cotton industry of the southwest already has attracted one large rubber tire manufacturer to Southern California.

If rubber production can be developed, it would mean a new industrial strike for California.

IDAHO STATE FAIR SECRETARY ON TRIAL

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 3.—Promises were given of a severe legal battle when the manslaughter trial of O. P. Hendershot, secretary of the state fair, opened today. Hendershot, it is charged, struck the blow that resulted in the death of Michael Morris, 36, of Philadelphia, Pa.

The defense has employed Judge H. I. Perky, former U. S. senator, as its chief counsel. The state has employed special attorneys to assist in the prosecution.

When Morris, who held a "Hula Hula" concession at the state fair, refused to admit a member of the fair grounds police free of charge to his show, Hendershot, it is charged, struck him following a heated argument, knocking him from a small stand. Morris died eight days later.

An autopsy disclosed that Morris died from the effects of a blow, and that death was directly due to a blood clot on the brain. The doctors, however, found that Morris was diseased, and that the blood vessels of his brain were weakened. They found that the blow would not have caused his death if he had been normal.

CHICKEN KLEPTOMANIAC FORMERLY IN PATTON

POMONA, Feb. 3.—A chicken kleptomaniac, whose depredations have continued here for some time, has been run to earth by the Pomona police. They are keeping his identity secret, but it is understood that he had been previously an inmate of Patton. He is said to have been reported upon about two years ago for the removal of a blood clot on the brain, which, it is believed, was the cause of his penchant for appropriating chickens. His excuse for poultry thefts was that the chickens were in the habit of sauntering down his alley. This annoyed him, so he called them in and put them in his chicken corral.

SEAMAN GETS D. S. C.

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Feb. 3.—Harry L. Neese, a second-class seaman on the U. S. S. Mississippi, was decorated with the Distinguished Service Cross by Capt. W. A. Moffett for valor on the battlefields of France.

Neese won an official citation and the cross for his actions at Cambrai on September 1, 1916, when he single handed, killing all of the Germans operating a machine gun. He was under almost unbearable fire for thirty days and crawled across No Man's Land into the enemy lines.

BAKERSFIELD, CAL., Feb. 3.

Five hundred and fifty-eight new oil wells with a total initial flow of 114,870 barrels were drilled in California during 1919, according to figures given out today by the Independent Oil Agency.

Figures on oil production, however, show a decrease of 735,696 barrels.

Nineteen nineteen production was 101,907,728 barrels against 102,643,415 for 1918.

Consumption decreased in 1919 from 106,155,000 barrels for the previous year to 103,248,701. Oil conservation efforts and the close of the war are considered responsible for decreased consumption.

Consumption, however, exceeded production by 1,340,972 barrels, according to these figures, meaning that the state's oil reserve was drawn on to that extent.

The Midway-Sunset district was the heaviest producer for the year with a record of 32,479,612 barrels. Whittier-Fullerton came next, and in addition to taking rank as second producing district, showed a heavy gain in production.

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS.

SAY, TOM, WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE IDEA OF YOU AND I BUYING A NEW AUTOMOBILE TOGETHER?

DO YOU MEAN A FIFTY FIFTY PROPOSITION?

SURE, YOU CAN HAVE THE CAR HALF OF THE TIME AND I CAN USE IT THE OTHER HALF—WE CAN GO FIFTY FIFTY ON THE EXPENSE—

HOW MUCH DO YOU THINK WE OUGHT TO PAY FOR A CAR?

THAT'S A VERY GOOD IDEA

IT'S OVER, OVER THERE!

WE WOULDN'T WANT A CHEAP CAR—YOU SEE I FIGURED WE COULD GET A BETTER ONE BY CHIPPING IN TOGETHER—I'LL GO LOOK AND SEE JUST HOW MUCH I GOT IN MY SAVINGS ACCOUNT

WILBUR HAS CLEVER IDEAS

SAY, TOM, WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE IDEA OF YOU AND I BUYING A NEW AUTOMOBILE TOGETHER?

DO YOU MEAN A FIFTY FIFTY PROPOSITION?

SURE, YOU CAN HAVE THE CAR HALF OF THE TIME AND I CAN USE IT THE OTHER HALF—WE CAN GO FIFTY FIFTY ON THE EXPENSE—

HOW MUCH DO YOU THINK WE OUGHT TO PAY FOR A CAR?

THAT'S A VERY GOOD IDEA

IT'S OVER, OVER THERE!
